Describe the Professional Development experience you are creating.

This proposed course, Elementary Education Master Teacher Professional Development Seminar, is a series of professional development classes to be offered to the Master Teachers in the Elementary Education Program. These Master Teachers host UNM Student Teachers in their first, second, and third semesters of student teaching.

Participants will attend one mandatory class sessions and then choose from a series of other professional development topics that are pertinent to the needs of Master Teachers. These sessions will be presented by a variety of faculty and guest lecturers in the College of Education.
